Make the 2016 Homecoming & Family Weekend one to remember! Here's a dozen fun things to do to reacquaint you with your alma mater and Fort Collins while rekindling fond memories. Share photos using #CSUHomecoming for a chance to win CSU swag!

WELCOME HOME, RAMS!

1 Be green! Park off-campus and ride the Max.

2 Be classy! Show your family your favorite lecture hall.

3 Get your feet wet! Find the high-water mark from the 1997 flood in the Lory Student Center and explore the rest of its remodeled glory.

4 Feed your face at a new dining center (Academic Village, Laurel Village, Durrell Center) and annoy students by telling them how good they have it.

5 Burn off the meal by taking advantage of the 4-days-for-12-dollars Homecoming special at the Student Rec Center.

6 Smile! Take a selfie with CAM or a Ram statue.

7 Enjoy the Festival on the Oval and Homecoming Parade. Then before you leave, uphold a longstanding tradition and kiss someone special.

8 Boom! Attend Friday Night Lights on the west lawn by the Lory Student Center for the bonfire, fireworks, and lighting of the A.

9 Get loud and proud by chanting the Colorado State article of faith: "I'm proud to be a CSU Ram."

10 Bid a fond farewell to Hughes by showing some love to the marching band and football team at Ram Walk.

11 Challenge the student section to see which side of Hughes can raise the most "Ram Ruckus" while cheering our team to victory.

12 Go to 132 Laporte Avenue and observe a moment of silence for the passing of Washington's Sports Bar and Grill. Then find a new watering hole in Old Town and toast good times and good friends.
