The purpose of APC is to represent and promote the interests of Administrative Professionals at Colorado State University and to facilitate communication across campus. Members are dedicated to researching, discussing, and making recommendations to the CSU Administration on any issue that has the potential to affect the welfare of APs.

The APC seeks energetic, passionate people to join the council. APC meets monthly and any AP with at least half-time appointment is eligible to serve.

Benefits of being on APC include:
- Networking with peers
- Developing leadership skills
- Taking part in decisions on issues related to you, your peers, and CSU
- Making new friends

If you’re interested in APC or have questions, contact:
Kris McKay
kris.mckay@colostate.edu | (970) 491-0909

New terms begin July 1, so nominate yourself or someone else by March 29, 2013!

For more information visit:
www.ap.colostate.edu

Current Members

The Administrative Professional Council is comprised of AP's from 15 different areas across campus with two to three representatives from each area elected to the APC. Administrative Professionals at Colorado State support research, teaching, outreach, management, program direction, and leadership.

AP positions fall into the following standard job categories:
- Research associates and scientists
- Information technology professionals
- Administrative directors and managers
- Coordinators
- Student service specialists
- Extension educators and specialists
- Foresters and other natural resource managers

Mission

The purpose of APC is to represent and promote the interests of Administrative Professionals at Colorado State University and to facilitate communication across campus. Members are dedicated to researching, discussing, and making recommendations to the CSU Administration on any issue that has the potential to affect the welfare of APs.

Key Initiatives

Commitment to Campus
Parking Services
Wellness Benefits
Tuition Credits
CSU Employee Appreciation Day

Becoming Involved

The APC seeks energetic, passionate people to join the council. APC meets monthly and any AP with at least half-time appointment is eligible to serve.

Benefits of being on APC include:
- Networking with peers
- Developing leadership skills
- Taking part in decisions on issues related to you, your peers, and CSU
- Making new friends

If you’re interested in APC or have questions, contact:
Kris McKay
kris.mckay@colostate.edu | (970) 491-0909

New terms begin July 1, so nominate yourself or someone else by March 29, 2013!

For more information visit:
www.ap.colostate.edu