- Be currently employed by Colorado State University.
- Have a minimum length of service of 10 years (must be professional employment, not student employment).
- Have demonstrated achievements through work at CSU that have significantly enhanced the University's mission, reputation, and/or morale on campus.
- Represent the University with professionalism, enthusiasm, and dedication.
- Demonstrate their pride in CSU through contributions of time and/or resources.

GUIDELINES OVERVIEW
This is an overview of some of the nomination guidelines. For a full description of the guidelines and/or a list of past recipients, please refer to the website www.alumni.colostate.edu

Eligibility
- Candidates may only be considered for one award category per year.
- Candidates may only receive one award every five years.
- Past award recipients may not be re-nominated for the same award.
- Awards may not be given to persons whose election would generate a potential conflict of interest with their current responsibilities and their selection as a Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, such as:
  - Any person currently running for an elected office or being considered for an appointed political office.
  - Any person receiving monetary compensation from Colorado State University or its affiliates during the nomination process (exception: Albert C. Yates Student Leadership Award, Distinguished Faculty Award, and Distinguished Alumni Employee Award).
  - Current Colorado State University System governing board members, Alumni Association board members, and CSU Foundation and CSU Research Foundation board members.
  - Any person, who by other position of potential conflict of interest not previously identified above, is determined by the Awards Committee to be ineligible for this award.

General Guidelines
- Nominations must be RECEIVED by the posted deadline. Nominations received after the deadline are not guaranteed full consideration.
- All nominations must follow specific award guidelines. Specific guidelines are listed on each award form.
- Please do not submit paper nominations in a binder or a bound format.
